The FCC has instituted new rules designed to protect customer specific data from being disclosed to an unauthorized third party. In an effort to follow these requirements and protect our customer's information, Chickasaw Long Distance Company has instituted the following safety precautions:

CPNI information will only be released after positive verification of the customer, or authorized representative of the customer, under one of the following methods ( in hierarchal order):

- 1) Customer can tell our representative the pin number for the account.
- 2) Customer can come to the office and present photo identification.
- 3) Customer can answer one of the random verification questions that were designated from our list of questions.
- 4) We will call the customer back at the phone number of record or a call-back number that we have had on file for over thirty days.
- 5) We will mail the requested information to the address of record.
- 6) We will email the requested information to the email address of record (if we have had this email address for more than thirty days).
